COFFEE SECRETS TOLD HERE

That coffee roasted in the big grocery store of Hermann Schmidt, 504-5-8 East Broad Street. Is superlor to the average coffee and a little better than the best sold elsewhere, is a well-known fact. The reason is that the purest, finest flavored grains only are used, and this fine flavor is carefully preserved in roasting, the latter being done by an expert. That is why the Bonton at 25 cents and the Arabian brand at 35 cents a pound are the two most popular brands of coffee in the South to-day. They have been on the market for years and are steadilly growing in demand
